

THE PHILADELPHIA NATIONAL BANK.

B.B. COMEGYS, PRESIDENT.

J.W. TORREY, CASHIER.

Philadelphia Dec. 17th 1886

Hon. Daniel M. Fox,

Superintendent, United States Mint,

Philadelphia:

Sir:

The demand for new minor coins about the holiday season is very heavy.

If you can favor us with Five hundred dollars each of new Halves and Quarters, we will esteem it highly.

Our runner will make application for them tomorrow, if you can accommodate us.

Very respectfully,

J.W. Torrey, Cas.

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 143

The Philadelphia National Bank.
Philadelphia,
December 17, 1886

Hon. Daniel M. Fox,
Superintendent, United States Mint,
Philadelphia:

Sir:

The demand for new minor coins about the holiday season is very heavy. If you can favor us with Five hundred dollars each of new Halves and Quarters, we will esteem it highly.

Our runner will make application for them tomorrow, if you can accommodate us.

Very respectfully,
J.W. Torrey, Cash.